Jason Aspinall

Chief Financial Officer

Jason Aspinall serves as SSP's Chief Financial Officer, leading the Accounting, HR, and IT teams. Since joining SSP in 2021, he has focused on strengthening teams, improving business processes, and helping SSP make sound financial and strategic decisions.

Jason believes that having the right people in the right roles, aligned around shared core values, is essential to building a strong organization.

Before joining SSP, Jason spent 15 years with a multinational corporation in factory and corporate finance leadership roles. He holds a BA in Accounting from Bradley University and an MBA from Illinois State University.

Outside of work, Jason enjoys running, traveling, and spending time with his wife and children.
